

THE CENTER FOR SOUTHEAST ASIAN STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII AT MĀNOA

Follow CSEAS Movie Updates on Twitter:
www.twitter.com/uhcseas

Become a Fan of CSEAS on Facebook:
www.facebook.com/cseas

SPRING 2010 FILM SERIES

CSEASHAWAII.COM

Last Life in the Universe

เรื่องรัก น้อยนิด มหาศาล

SPRING 2010 FILM SERIES

Wednesday, 10 March 2010

Thailand 2003, 112 minutes

Kenji (Asano Tadanobu) , a young Japanese living in Bangkok, is no ordinary man. He's a neat freak, whose obsessive compulsive traits are revealed in his book-filled apartment, from the colour-coordinated stacks of socks in his closet to the neat row of clean plates drying by the spotless kitchen sink. A chain of events brings Kenji together with Noi (Sinitta Boonyasak), and it's here that Kenji discovers that Noi is everything that he isn't. She's a slob, in contrast to Kenji's button-down appearance. She's also a pothead. The mess is captured with moody realism by master cinematographer Christopher Doyle; music by Hualampong Riddim & Small Room underscores this offbeat romance. Wise Kwai calls it one of his top ten fave Thai films of the last decade!

WEDNESDAY
3/10/10

KOREAN STUDIES AUDITORIUM

6:30 PM
FREE!!!

The Southeast Asian (SEA) Film Series is hosted by the Center for Southeast Asian Studies and co-sponsored by the Department of Geography's GEOG 356: Geography of Southeast Asia, University of Hawaii at Mānoa. Partial funding for this series comes from the United States Department of Education.